for a good investment for $50 or $100 a year? And are you aged 23? Well, listeal You remember what Patrick Henry said about being guided by "the lamp of experience." No one knows the future, you see, we can only judge by the past. Well, here is the experience of a man who was your are 20 years ago. His name was Roberts—Pereival W. Roberts—and he lived at Frendale, Call He insured in the New York Life for $1,000, under a 20.Year Endowment policy, paying $47.68 annually Get out your interest tables and figure the value of that amount for 20 years at 4 four per cent. compound interest. Here it is—$40.960 x 47.68 $1,476.60. The cash value of his policy was $1,522.05. Will you trust the estimate of a building association that hasn't been in existence ten years, or that of a life company that never paid atwenty year dividend policy, or will you be guided by experience and insure in the NEW YOPE LIFE.
